

Municipal Band Offers Free Concert Tonight

Lucien Cailliet, nationally known conductor, arranger and composer will be guest conductor tonight at the Torrance Civic Auditorium when the Torrance Municipal Band presents its annual spring concert. Cailliet will lead the band in three of his own arrangements during the latter half of the program. The first part of the concert will be directed by James Van Dyck, the band's regular conductor, and by Clem Hutchinson, instructor in woodwinds at the University of Southern California.

Cailliet will conduct his own arrangement of "A Mighty Fortress is Our God", waltzes from "Der Rosenkavalier" from the opera by Richard Strauss, and "Homage to the U. S. Navy", a number especially written for the official United States Band during the last war. Other numbers on the program include "Emblem of Unity", a march; "Capriccio Italian", by Tschai-kowsky; "The Three Trumpeters", trumpet trio played by Jonathan Murakami, Marino Menni, and Don Rader; "Wag-gery for Woodwinds", "Folk Song Suite", by Vaughan Wil-liams; and "Caribbean Fantasy".

Cailliet was for 15 years chief arranger for Leopold Stokow-sky and the Philadelphia Sym-phony Orchestra. He came to the west coast in 1940 and spent the following seven years teaching at the University of Southern California and writing music for motion pictures. In 1949 and '50 he toured the United States as arranger and conductor of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. At the present time he is writing original scores for motion pictures and writing band and orchestra music for publication.

Tonight's concert will begin at 8:15. It is open to the public without charge. Preceding the concert, members of the Torrance Area Youth Band, their parents and friends will have a covered dish supper.

Walteria News Notes

May was given a formal wel-come recently when the PTA held a final meeting for this year, and presented a May Day Festival. The program included participation by all the rooms at the Walteria school. Each grade gave a musical interpretation of some sort. There were sing-ing games and songs with dances. The children wore lovely costumes designed by the moth-ers, and were very colorful in the many bright outfits. Kinder-garten mothers were hostesses. We are very proud of our fine and active PTA, and hope that even more parents will become active in this organization in the coming year.

Hawthorne boulevard, were vis-ited by Mr. and Mrs. Bud Corey, of Dominguez over Fri-day and Saturday, May 11 and 12. Sunday, the William Coreys journeyed to Norwalk to spend the day with friends.

That long-legged bird has re-cently been busy lately. Con-gratulations are to be extended to three couples this week. The first to arrive was a new daugh-ter for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne, Madison street. The new girl was named Lynn Katherine. She was born on May 6 at the Torrance Memorial Hospital. Next on our list of new ar-rivals is Miss Linda Lu Ellis, who was greeted by her parents at 8:29 p.m. Wednesday, May 9. Linda weighed in at the Tor-rance Memorial Hospital at seven pounds eleven and one-fourth ounces. The proud par-ents are Mr. and Mrs. Glen H. Ellis of Newton street. Another bundle from heaven was pre-sented to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montgomery of Neece avenue. The Montgomerys became par-ents of a fine boy, Michael Duane, at the Seaside Hospital on Thursday, May 10. He weighed eight pounds seven ounces.

Our heartiest, best wishes and congratulations to all six proud parents!

Demonstrating their skill re-cently in the culinary arts the firmen of fire station Number 2 here in Walteria, played hosts to their wives and served a fine dinner of roast beef with all the fixin's, finishing off with ice cream and cookies. Those enjoy-ing the meal were Chief and Mrs. J. J. Benner, Captain and Mrs. Ivan Kottering, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Nielson, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Slonaker, Harry Drake and guest Miss Corvallis, along with call men and wives, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crowthers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hughes. Sounds like a very good time was en-joyed by all.

This columnist wishes to ex-tend the community's sym-pathy to Mrs. Agnes Whittington, Neece avenue, upon the death of her brother, Bill Hood at the Veteran's Hospital in Long Beach on Sunday, May 13.

Picture of a young man enjoying FRYERS from SAFEWAY

Watch a youngster (age 6 to 60) bite into a piece of fried Saway chicken. The happy expression that comes to his face is ample proof of the wonderful flavor of these select fryers. It's flavor that is grown in the bird through special feeding which produces tender, sweet meat. This goodness is carefully safeguarded by means of rigid quality control to bring the chicken to you at its very best. Each bird is completely cleaned and dressed—ready for the pan.
